

Masters in Divinity Equivalencies

Name: _____ Date: _____

The professional standard for CCCM requires a Masters in Divinity (M.Div) or its equivalent. There are four components to a Masters in Divinity which can help the committee assess equivalency:

- i) knowledge of religious heritage (theology)
- ii) understanding of cultural context
- iii) growth of moral and spiritual integrity
- iv) capacity for public ministerial leadership

Please complete the following form to demonstrate your equivalency. You are encouraged to include all formation including formal studies, professional development opportunities, workshops, experience, employment history, personal study, and more. Review of the CCCM Code of Ethics may be helpful in setting a context for your demonstration of your M. Div. equivalency.

I. Theology (M. Div. generally includes three years of graduate academic study of theology (Bible, History, Pastoral, Systematics, Ethics) – Please send copy of your degree.

a) Academic History

Degree	Year	Institution
--------	------	-------------

b) Theological Training (List Degree, Year, Institution and courses; additional workshops, readings, etc.)

II. Understanding of Cultural Context (e.g. diversity, multiculturalism, multifaith, globalization, popular culture, how to theologize in world we live)

III. Growth of moral and spiritual integrity (mechanisms for reflection, healthy boundaries...)

IV. Capacity for public ministerial leadership

V. Other relevant competencies