

Doing Justice with Integrity 2015
January 30 – February 1st, 2015
Toronto

Bursary Application Form
Due Date: January 13th, 2015

Cost

Commuter: $90.00

Non Commuter: $150.00

General Information

Name: _____

Email: _____

University: _____

Year of study: _____

Relevant Experience and Interest

1. Why do you want to attend the Proclaiming Justice with Integrity Weekend?

2. One of the goals of this weekend is to form leaders so they can return to campus and help start or strengthen a Development and Peace group on campus. Is this of interest to you? What do you know about Development and Peace and what ideas do you have for doing this?

3. Another goal of this weekend is to help promote the Jesuit Volunteers Canada, Scarborough Missions One Year program and Romero House service opportunities, which, if any of these, would be most interesting to you and why?

4. Another goal of this weekend is to promote justice and service events to be held during Catholic Students Week? What experience do you have organizing events and what ideas might you have?

5. Are you part of the campus ministry community? Do you have the support of your campus minister? If so, please provide their name.

Finances

5. Taking into account the registration fee of $150 and the travel cost, what is the total cost of your participation? _____

6. How much can you contribute? _____

7. How much do you need? _____

Is there anything else we should know?

In order to complete your Bursary Application, please fill out the Registration form available at www.ccm.ca/proclaiming-justice-with-integrity. Completed Registration Forms and Bursary Applications must be received by January 13, 2015 to be considered.